Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Happy Pentecost Sunday. The third person of the Holy Trinity is sometimes the hardest for us to visualize. We can visualize a creating Father, and redeeming Son who came in human form, but the Spirit is sometimes hard to grasp onto. It was hard for Nicodemus who came to Jesus at night: “The wind blows where it wills, and you can hear the sound it makes, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.” (John 3:8)

And yet the Holy Spirit is in everything: active in creation; active in the formation of Scripture; active in raising up the Patriarchs and prophets; active in conceiving the Word Incarnate in the virginal womb of Mary; active in raising Jesus from the dead; active in turning the scared Apostles of the Jesus into bold and fearless missionaries and martyrs; active in sustaining the Church during persecution, corruption, and scandal; active in breathing faith, hope, and love into the hearts and lives of people today—and not just people far away but into you, into our own parishioners. It’s like a fish who is searching for water, not realizing that it is all around it, sustaining it and giving it life, and keeping it afloat.

One of the shortest yet most effective prayers we can say is, “Come Holy Spirit.” I say it before I preach, before I enter a hospital room, before I meet with a parishioner, before I do anything for which the limits of my own abilities are inadequate but with the help of the Holy Spirit are more than sufficient. “To him be glory who is able to accomplish infinitely more that we can ask or imagine.” (Ephesians 3:20) That is the Holy Spirit!

God bless,

Fr. Michael

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA):

Did you witness either of our celebrations welcoming new members? At the Easter Vigil we welcomed five new members and on April 28th we welcomed four more. Did this move anyone in your family who is not Catholic but attends Mass with you, participates in parish activities, and is involved with our faith community? If so, are they interested in becoming Catholic? Have you invited that person to join you on your faith journey? For more information, please contact Bonnie Barker at 315-469-6600 ext 103 or email Bonnie at FFstmichaelstpete@syrдио.org or contact Father Michael.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Today, on Pentecost, we remember Christ has given us the Holy Spirit to assist us in raising our family and he expects us to use this personal gift. Let us turn off the noise, apps and distractions in our lives and let the Holy Spirit "guide us to the truth."

With the recent tragic deaths of two local law enforcement officers, Lieutenant Michael Hoosock and Officer Michael Jensen, a ministry has begun with the intent of providing blessed rosaries and St. Michael medals and chaplets to First Responders as a means of spiritual protection. This would be in memory of these two fallen heroes and for First Responders to know they are prayed for, loved, supported and respected. A group is currently making rosaries Friday mornings, 9:45-Noon at St. Stephen's Phoenix and the CNY Marian Center, North Syracuse, Tuesday, 10-Noon. With a pastor's approval, we will also come into a parish with supplies to make the rosaries and St. Michael chaplets with any group or individuals that would like to participate. This would be stringing the beads and we would complete them with the knots and crucifix or medal. The rosaries and chaplets will also be available to parishes for First Responders in your community. We are currently providing them to the men and women most directly affected by the April tragedy. You can help make rosaries and chaplets, fund supplies or pray for First Responders and this ministry by contacting Nora Germain, 315-263-2107, ngerm@twcny..rr.com or Regina Harty, 315-450-5402, reginaharty33@gmail.com .

Thank you for your prayers.
